

AYLESBURY MUSIC FESTIVAL WEEKENDER

21st & 22nd July 2012

Summer 2012 is already shaping up to be another bumper year of local live-music excitement, entertainment & festivities within Aylesbury town centre.

In addition to The BIG Lunch, The Queen's Diamond Jubilee, and of course the Olympics & Paralympics, we have the return of the "Aylesbury Festival Weekender", a family friendly and laid-back FREE music festival, now in its 5th consecutive year, offering a multitude of different musical styles & featuring some of the best local bands from around the area.

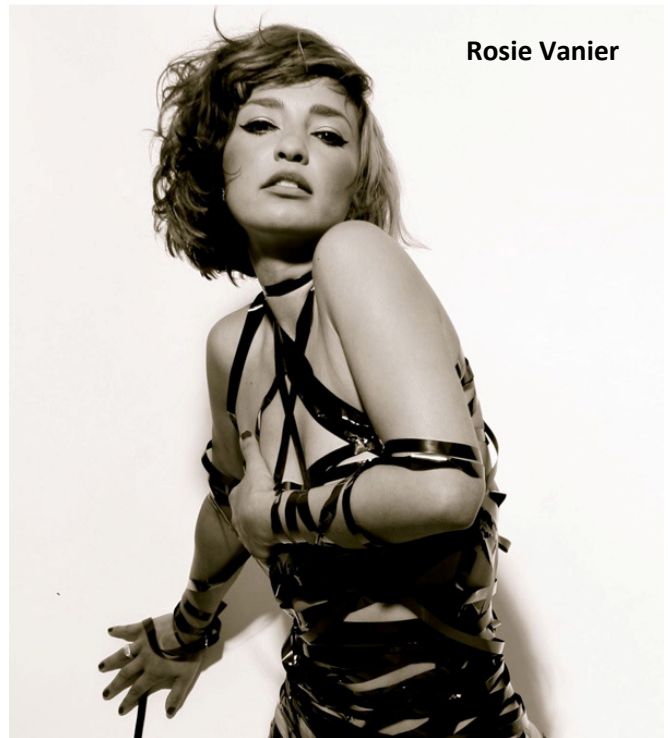

Saturday offers an eclectic variety of 'Music through the Ages' including: 50's & 60's Rock n' Roll, 70's Punk & New Wave, 80's Ska, 90's-00's Pop & Rock, plus a bit of Acoustic Blues thrown into the mix, performed across two stages (a live band stage, & an acoustic stage) in Kingsbury, Aylesbury Town Centre on Saturday & Sunday, 21st & 22nd July from 11am – 4pm.

Headlined by: Ska Souls UK, also featuring Katie Buckhaven, The Stylettes, Clare Free, The Synthetix, Pubcrawl, & Almost Midnight.

Sunday will focus more (although not exclusively) on original up-and-coming local bands and singer songwriters, from Heavy Rock to Indie to Acoustic Pop.

Headlined by: InDefinately, with Sian Cross, Rosie Vanier, Tinlin, Palahniuk, Abbie Broom, Dead Cells, Max Unplugged, & Dumb Angel.

One of the musicians performing live at this event is Clare Free: "it's going to be great! I live in Bicester so this is really a home gig for me. People can expect funky blues with a modern twist..."

Visit AylesburyShowcase.com for more information on all the featured bands, and The New Roxette (theNewRoxette) for their latest interviews.
