Meets:

Georgie Bird

Hi Georgie, please tell our readers about yourself...

Influenced by Lissie and Lilly Alan, my music has been evolving continuously. A combination of indie and pop, each song teams catchy melodies and strong lyrics.

What has been your biggest highlight so far this year?

Biggest highlight so far this year was finishing off my debut EP and having it picked up by BBC Introducing for Beds, Herts and Bucks. It's amazing to have been invited to their BBC studio to perform.

How do you feel about being invited to perform at Hobble on the Cobbles this year?

Excited to play at Hobble on the Cobbles 2014!

Is there anything you would like to share with our readers?

We will be recording the new EP in September in a top studio in London, and can't wait!

What else are you looking forward to this year?

Looking forward to too many things to list for the rest of the year!

What other bands are you following at the moment?

Check out Sinfiction if you haven't already, they're definitely Bucks and Oxford's best original band of the moment!
