Charlotte Campbell

- a 23 year old singer songwriter, who will be performing at 'Hobble on the Cobbles' this summer, in Aylesbury -

Hello! - I'm Charlotte Campbell and I sing and play my own songs..!

Please tell us a bit about yourself.

I am most inspired by fellow songwriters, and a bit of girl power; artists such as Alanis Morissette, Joni Mitchell and Taylor Swift are my biggest inspirations. I am cheery, but my songs are pensive, and I love performing live! ☺

What has been your biggest highlight(s) this year, and why?

My proudest moment this year was being selected to perform at the build up to the BRIT Awards: (Busking at The BRITS in the O2) - it was so much fun being involved with the buzz of the BRIT Awards!

As well as this, I launched a Pledge Campaign to fund my album, and I am so proud to have had such a huge response so far. www.pledgemusic.com/projects/charlottecampbell

I was also very proud to meet the Mayor of London; Boris Johnson recently – especially after having won a prize at his competition last summer.

How do you feel about being invited to perform at HOTC this summer?

I can't wait for HOTC! I'm so proud to be involved and as I'm not from the area it will be great to play to a new crowd!

Is there anything you would like to tell or share with our readers about you?

Well my album Blue Eyed Soul will be released on April 20th 😊

I'm so excited to have written, performed, recorded and released my own album and I'm so pleased to be sharing it with you!

I'm looking forward to the summer!

I am a busker on London's Southbank and I can't wait to get back out there and play!

Which bands are you following at the moment?

Who would you recommend we (and our readers) should check out?

I'm a sucker for the old stuff. I'm listening to lots of Joni Mitchell and Fleetwood Mac right now and I highly recommend young musicians to listen to more than the top 40!

I'm really into a band called The 1975 who are doing well at the moment and singer songwriter Gabrielle Aplin.

Thanks for taking time out to chat to The New Roxette Charlotte.

Good luck with the album, and we look forward to seeing you in Aylesbury in the summer.
